Thanks to good Friends

I WOULD like on behalf of my husband and I and all the residents of Adelphi House to express our grateful thanks to all those wonderful people who at Christmas time put themselves out at their own expense to organise a little something for the old people. I mean of course, the Lions, Rotary, Salvation Army etc. It is nice to know there are people like them who take time to think of others at this time of the year. I would also like to thank Mr Alf Mee and his colleagues The Barbers Shop Choir, also Mr Alan Bailey (magician) who so kindly gave their services to entertain us at our Christmas party. So once again thanks to all those people concerned on behalf of us all. — Mrs W. Gittins, Warden of Adelphi House, Old Peoples Sheltered Accommodation.

Party spirit

Nearly 100 elderly people will be the guests of honour at a special Christmas meal on Friday, organised by South Ribbles Lions Club. The old folk will have a slap-up dinner, followed by entertainment provided by the Preston Barber Shop Quartet.
