Monday January 3rd 1983 Music Committee meeting at Mike's. Present: Mike, Tony, John Smith, Bernard.

Club singing (Pub) - Concert Secs - not to be encouraged. Pubs/Clubs won't listen.

Repertoire: Stick to limited list-- possibly 3 x 20 mins for constant programme for sing-outs.

Increased practices: Additional sectional practices were again suggested. Mike suggested Tony Mason organise Bass sectional practice, especially during Tony's enforced absence.

Contest Songs: Favoured:- If you had all the world and its gold, Showboat came to town. - Agreed.

Prelims Nov 26th: It was suggested a couple of Bass singers transfer to Lead part - Mike to sound out singers.

Copies of 'Rosie' as sung by The Tidelanders', were obtained by Mike, for section leaders to examine and learn.

Blackpool Grand Show: Contact to find out what is required of us - whether joint or individual.

Assistant Chorus Director: Tony was again asked to consider. He agreed to give it another go: Also Harmony Workshop on February 19th was mentioned - Tony agreed to go with Mike if absence from work can be achieved and there is a class for Assistant Chorus - check with Rod Butcher.

Risers: Largest risers not now needed due to reduced chorus.

OCT. 22. BLACKPOOL MUSIC FESTIVAL - CHORUS - SECOND

CLOSE QUARTERS - SECOND.
