Summer music

THE Preston Orpheus Choir is hoping to warm the hearts of local music lovers with a concert of 'Music for a Summer Evening' and help to raise money for the Mayor of Preston's charity fund.

The Orpheus Choir will be joining with a wide variety of other singers and dancers for a special performance at the Guild Hall.

The charity concert, compered by television personality Colin Welland, will take place on Saturday May 18, starting at 7.30pm, and performers will include the Red Rose Barbershop Chorus, The Hoghton Rapper Sword Team, The Light Infantry Corunna Band as well as dancers and choirs from local schools.
