

NATIONAL ANTHEM

PART ONE

THE DENNY GORDON JAZZ BAND

Guaranteed to set your feet alight with a good old-fashioned Jam Session!

The Southport Barbershop Harmony Club

"THE WAYFARERS CHORUS"

Musical Director: John Corcoran

Celebrating their first Anniversary as a Barbershop Chorus

"CURTAIN CALL QUARTET"

Dale Kynaston: Baritone
John Riseborough: Bass

Rod Butcher: Tenor
Bernie Cureton: Lead

From the West Midlands Barbershop Harmony Club, (Anvil Chorus), they were formed in 1989 from 'First Impression' (1989 Bronze Medallists) and 'Back in Time' (1988 / 89 Finalists), and after only five weeks managed a close second place in the Northern Area Quartet Championships. This Quartet boasts 43 years of combined Barbershop experience!

STEVE O'CONNOR

"Memories of Jolson"

with Trevor Jones (Keyboard) Gary Robinson (Drums)

Steve O'Connor has been a Jolson Entertainer for the past 15 years, starting in show business at the age of 17, singing in dance bands. He has appeared many times in this theatre and the Floral Hall, and is also seen on television as a character actor.

The Preston Barbershop Harmony Club

"THE RED ROSE CHORUS"

Musical Director: Simon Hilton

Formed in 1975, due to a television programme 'Short Back and Sides', which featured American Barbershop Singers, they have developed into a most entertaining Chorus, raising a great deal of money for charity in the North West.

INTERVAL OF 15 MINUTES

Programme Cover: Design by John Corcoran

Stage Manager: Colin Wayte

Asst. Stage Manager: Brian Knight

'A CENTURY OF HARMONY'

Compere
BOBBY KAYE

PART TWO

THE DENNY GORDON JAZZ BAND

A delayed encore - with more of the same!

THE LIVERPOOL LADIES BARBERSHOP SINGERS

Musical Director: Sharon Woods

Talented - Sophisticated - Easy on the eye!

They were the Ladies Association of British Barbershop Singers Chorus Champions in 1980, 1982 and 1985, and two weeks ago took first place at the Harrogate Music Festival.

BOBBY KAYE

Television and Radio Personality

with Trevor Jones (Keyboard) Gary Robinson (Drums)

Bobby Kaye from Southport is so well known, both here and throughout the North West of England, that it seems irrelevant to say more, except that it is a great pleasure to have him once again to present our programme and to entertain you himself.

The Bolton Barbershop Harmony Club

"THE COTTON TOWN CHORUS"

Musical Director: Terry Smith

A welcome return visit from this spectacular Chorus, now in its eleventh year. Two weeks ago, they took first place at the prestigious Harrogate Music Festival. Congratulations to M.D. Terry Smith, who has just won a British Association of Barbershop Singers music scholarship in the U.S.A. against very strong competition.

FINALE

Combined Choruses

All over the world, wherever Barbershop Singers perform, their finale song is always...

'Let's get together again and keep the whole world singing'

Carolyn Surus	Ian Farnie	Roy Caslake
Tim Donnelly	Frank Laurensen	Sheila Briggs
Ted Ellis	Martin Grundy	Robert Swann
Bernard Davis	Jo Thomas	John Parry
Norman Ambrose	Robert Ladds	John Hinchcliffe

Your Chairman Mr Brian Hodgkinson

At The Pianoforte Mr Sean Ashmore

Serving wenches and lads - The Misses' Sarah Clarke, Jenny Cropper, Victoria Shone. Masters' Howard Brown, Matthew Clarke, Jeffrey Lambert, Simon Lambert.

Saturday April 21st 1990 at 7-30 pm The Endowed School

BRETHERTON

A RICHARD GUINNESS PRODUCTION MCMXC ©

4 MAY 90 L.E.P.
Doing their bit
for harmony

BARBERSHOP singing is alive and well in the county and Preston Barbershop Harmony Club is doing its bit to foster this.

Recently members were invited to sing at Lancashire Polytechnic Arts Centre, off Fylde Road, programme of events was a one-act play presented by Preston Drama Club, an instrumental item by Ann Lightfoot and John Amriding, and a demonstration by the Royal Preston Morris Dancers.

● Chorley and District Arts Association is pres-